

Gharchi Diwali

Date & Time: 2025-10-26T11:00

Location: 1) Apulki old age home 2) Sai Sahara old age home 3) Dyandeep orphanage 4) Orphanage (name not known)

Type Of Event

Social Department

Objective

1. To celebrate Diwali with senior citizens by sharing joy, warmth and companionship.
2. To distribute Diwali faral and bring festive cheer to those living away from their families.
3. To promote social responsibility and community engagement among youth volunteers.
4. To build bonds of love and respect with elderly residents through conversations and shared moments.
5. To spread awareness about inclusivity and emotional care for the elderly in our society.
6. To create a positive impact by fostering a sense of belonging and happiness in their festive season.

Target Audience

1. Senior Citizens

Residents of Apulki Old Age Home and Sai Sahara Old Age Home, who will receive festive care and companionship.

2. Homeless / Orphan (Annath) Children

Children living without families or in shelter homes, who will benefit through faral distribution, joyful interaction, and emotional support.

Budget

Amount spent was 7200/-

Organised By

Imperium Trust

Key Highlights

- Distribution of Diwali faral to senior citizens and orphaned/homeless children
- Meaningful conversations & interactive bonding activities
- Emotional support and festive companionship for those without families
- Active participation from youth volunteers of Imperium Trust
- Promoting the spirit of kindness, humanity, and community service
- Encouraging inclusion and respect for elderly and vulnerable groups
- Creating joyful memories through photos, wishes, and festive moments
- Awareness building about elderly care and social responsibility

Event Schedule

10:30 a.m. – 10:50 a.m. Team Reporting & Briefing (Meeting Point)
11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. Visit 1: Apulki Old Age Home – Faral distribution & interaction
12:00 p.m. – 12:30 p.m. Travel to next location
12:30 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. Visit 2: Sai Sahara Old Age Home – Bonding activities & group photo
1:00 p.m. – 1:15 p.m. Travel to orphanage
1:15 p.m. – 1:45 p.m. Visit 3: Dnyadeep Orphanage – Faral distribution & fun activities
1:45 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Travel to last location
2:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. Visit 4: (Orphanage Name – To be added) – Celebration & closing smiles
2:30 p.m. onwards Wrap-up & Team Departure

Outcomes And Impact

- Emotional Well-Being & Happiness

Senior citizens and orphaned children feel valued, loved, and included during the festive season.

- Strengthened Social Connections

Building a bridge of companionship between youth and vulnerable community groups.

- Increased Awareness & Empathy

Volunteers develop deeper understanding of elderly care, social issues, and community needs.

- Encouraging Inclusive Festive Celebrations

Extending Diwali joy beyond families—ensuring no one feels left out during festivals.

- Positive Community Engagement

Youth participation promotes social responsibility and inspires others toward volunteerism.

- Memorable Experiences for All

Smiles, photos, and shared moments create lasting memories of kindness and humanity.

- Support to Shelter Homes

Providing essential festive food items helps reduce financial burden on care homes.

Partners And Sponsors

Partners -

- 1) Kartavya medical foundation
- 2) Adypu NSS

Sponsors-

- 1) UGU
- 2) Disha computer institute, vishrantwadi

Challenges And Learning

? Challenges

- Managing time efficiently across multiple locations
- Coordinating large groups of volunteers and maintaining discipline
- Ensuring respectful behavior and emotional sensitivity during interactions
- Handling unpredictable situations at old age homes/orphanages (health, comfort, environment)
- Limited resources and need for proper material distribution without imbalance

? Key Learnings

- Importance of empathy, patience, and attentive listening while interacting with vulnerable groups
- Teamwork, coordination, and leadership during social outreach activities
- Awareness of the physical and emotional needs of elderly and orphan children
- Experience in planning, communication, and execution of community service events
- Responsibility of youth in building a compassionate and supportive society.

Annexure

The following annexures are attached as supporting documents for the Diwali Faral Distribution Drive:

Annexure A: List of Volunteers

- Names, roles, contact details, reporting groups

Annexure B: Location Details

- Addresses, Google Maps links, and travel route plan for

1. Apulki Old Age Home

2. Sai Sahara Old Age Home

3. Dnyadeep Orphanage

4. (To be updated – Orphanage Name Pending)

Annexure C: Faral Items & Distribution Plan

- Quantity list
- Allotment per location
- Inventory management chart

Annexure D: Activity Plan

- Interaction activities
- Festival celebration tasks
- Group photo guidelines

Annexure E: Safety & Conduct Guidelines

- Rules for communication, photography, and sensitivity
- Emergency contact details

Conclusion

The Diwali Faral Distribution Drive is a heartfelt initiative aimed at spreading joy, love, and a sense of belonging among senior citizens and orphaned children during the festive season. Through this event, Imperium Trust reinforces its commitment to social responsibility and community care. The active involvement of our youth volunteers will not only bring smiles to the faces of those in need but also help them grow as compassionate and responsible citizens.

This celebration of Diwali goes beyond lights and sweets — it reflects humanity, togetherness, and the true essence of the festival. With collective effort, kindness, and empathy, we strive to ensure that no one feels alone during this festive time.

(Imperium Trust)